Dear Fred:
Noted your posting, and just at the right time!.
Pat Haynes Benton is a niece to Elizabeth Sarah (Haynes) Jones that married 2nd: Linz Crider. They have been trying to find out what happened to Elizabeth. One researcher indicated that she died in 1943 in Gasconade Co, MO.

Pat does not have email and I am trying to assist her. Elizabeth Sarah Haynes-Jones's daughter, Alta Helen Jones married my third cousin, Wesley Charles Blackwell on 8 Sep 1927, so I am indirectly related and also interested in what happened to Elizabeth.
I don't think she had a very good "track record". Alta only told me that her dad was "James Edward Jones" and that her mother was Elizabeth Haynes. And she was a "Guffey" when she died. Alta died in 2000 and here is her obit:

The Dixon Pilot, June 22, 2000, page 7:
Alta Helen Blackwell, 89, of Fairmont City, Illinois passed away Saturday, June 17, 2000, in Belleville, Illinois. She was born on April 26, 1911 to Elizabeth Guffey. Alta was preceded in death by her husband, Wesley Blackwell, parents: two sisters: Lillian Smith and Mary Spencer, and one brother, Raymond Crider. She is survived by one son, Harold Blackwell of Kirkwood, two daughters, Shirley Ayers of Sullivan, Helen Borick of St. Louis, one brother, Roy F. Jones and wife Gladys of Florida: 15 grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held Monday, June 19, 2000 at 11:00 a.m. at the Kenner Cemetery with Ron Bell officiating. Arrangements were under the direction of Long Funeral Home in Dixon.

(Note: Alta and Wes Blackwell lived in Dixon, MO; after Wesley died, Alta was in a Nursing Home in Cuba, Mo for a while, then was living with a granddaughter(?) in Illinois when she died. She is buried along side of Wesley at the Kenner Cemetery in Maries Co, MO) Alta was a very strong person; she had a lot of ailments, but never complained. She got infection in one eye and lost it over a period of time. She and Wes had a big hearts...)

Crider notes

Notes for Peter Walter:
Peter moved to Gasconade County, Missouri with his mother and step-father after the death of his father. Land transactions in Cabarrus County confirm Peter's relationship to Nicholas. Peter wrote his cousin Charles Walter, in Cabarrus County, a letter in 1833. The letter read as follows: (abstracted for readabiltiy)

June 30, 1833

Charles Walter;

I am writing to inform you and your family that we are all well thanks to our maker who gives all good gifts to us poor sinners. I hope these lines will find my old uncle and cousins in the same state of health with God's tender mercies on them. Charles, it's been a long time since I have heard from you. I hope that this letter gives both of us satisfaction. Charles, my prayers and feelings will be with you, your family and your friends as long as God allows us to remain on earth.

Cousin Charles, let me tell you about land where we live. It is stony and hilly with good water. There is some very rich range land suitable for all kinds of stock. In some areas grass grows from one to five feet high.

Charles, we live a lazy life here. If we moved back to the old State and had to work like you, we would certainly die before our time.

Charles, my mother and step father are alive. My sisters and brothers from the old state are also alive. All are doing well. Frederick Barbrick's family was well a few days ago. My half brothers and sisters are all married.

Pork and beef sells for two to three cents a pound, corn for 25 to 50 cents and wheat about 50 cents a bushel. Three year old hogs often weigh 300 pounds, even with little corn feeding. Cows sell for 7 to 10 dollars each and steers sell for 7 to 12 dollars each. Cattle prices depend on weight. When ready for market, we can sell our stock at home. Land sells for one dollar and a quarter per acre.

Charles, this is good and easy country to live in. We have very little sickness. The most common complaint is chills and fever. This seldom causes death. Laws here are tolerable. All a person has to do is behave and he won't have any problem with them.

Let me tell you about hunting here Cousin Charles. Some nights I go out with my canoe, gun and fire lamp. On good nights, I kill from 2 to 5 deer. Sometimes I get as close as 5 to 10 steps from the bucks and have almost rubbed against them. Enough of this now, you can sure guess that I have a lot of fun some nights.

Now Cousin Charles Walter I want you to write me all about yourself, your family, your brothers, brothers-in-laws and my old uncle. Tell me where they live and write to me about my Cousin Croners. Tell John Murph to write me a first rate letter. Cousin Charles, please take this letter to my uncle and read it to him. Please be sure to write to me about Nicholas Walter and Jacob Louis. Tell me where they live and let me know which one of the Bostians is married to your sister. Please mail your letter to the State of Missouri, Gasconade County, Mount Starling Post Office. Please send your letter as soon as possible. With respect until death.

Hello Fred,

Sorry for the delay getting back to you. A few years back, I was exchanging information with Richard Groner. Richard pieced together this part of the puzzle and some of his logic was from the letter written by Peter Walter (then in Gasconade County, Missouri) to his Cousin Charles Walter in Cabarrus County, NC. The letter was written in 1833. Here's the transcribed copy.

If Peter was referring to a first cousin Croners (pretty sure this was Groner) then one must look at possibilities for first cousins. Either Peter's father's sister married a Groner or his mother's sister married a Groner or if she was a Groner then her brother's children would have been first cousins. Any of these three would qualify as Groner first cousins.

We are reasonably certain that Peter was referring to a first cousin because we have identified all of the other people he refers to and our findings suggest this to be true. His cousin Charles, to whom the letter is addressed, is also a first cousin, a son of his father's brother, Paul Walter, Sr.

Let's examine the three possibilities.

Peter's father, Nicholas, had only two sisters. An unnamed sister married Peter Boger. Frances married John Neisler. No possibility hear for a Groner cousin.

Peter's mother, Barbara, if a Groner fit in a family that I believe Richard had identified. This family was that of John Jacob and Elizabeth Groner. Their children were Catherine, John Jacob Jr., Nicholas, William, Christopher, Barbara, Margaret, and Sophronia Groner. Obviously, lots of opportunities here for first cousins. I know that somewhere around here I have more information that Richard gave me on this family.

As I recall, Barbara fit better in this family than anywhere else. Also, I don't think anyone has identified another male Groner that married a sister of a Barbara that may be same as married Nicholas Walter.

As to the burial location of Daniel and Barbara Crider, here's some opinions shared be me and many others. These were taken from "The Descendants of Daniel Crider, Sr". I have obtained permission to use material directly from this book, so long as I give proper acknowledgements, so here goes.

from "The Descendants of Daniel Crider, Sr."
copyright, . 1976, 1988, 2001 by The House of Crider, Julian Crider and Bill Crider, Editors. Material used by permission.

No markers have ever been found for the graves of Daniel Crider, Sr. and his wife Barbara. Some conclude "that Daniel Crider had been buried in the Barbarick Cemetery" - for the following reasons:

1. It was in the general proximity of the neighborhood in which he lived at the time of his death, as evidenced by his last will and testament.

2. That the Barbarick Cemetery was located on land owned by Daniel's step-daughter and her husband, Elizabeth and Frederick Barbarick.

3. That Daniel's wife, Barbara Crider, died before he did. Also, that it was reasonable that she would have been buried in the plot on her daughters' land.

4. That Daniel Crider would have been buried beside his wife.

5. That the Barbarick cemetery was used extensively by at least two branches of the Crider family (children of Daniel) for the remainder of the century following Daniel's death in 1842.

Fred, I am attaching the second part of my Walter Legacy Book (pdf format). It includes this family, but I must admit; I did not include documentation on the identity of Barbara. Perhaps I should confer with Richard again and finalize this part of our family history.

I visited the Barberick-Goers Cemetery in 1998 and of course I did not find markers for Daniel and Barbara. I did find the marker for Barbara's daughter, Elizabeth Walter Barberick. There's more in the attached file including pictures of Elizabeth's marker.

Thanks for your inquiry, hope I haven't bored you. Have a blessed day.

Regards,

Gary Walter

Concord, NC

PS I do have an modern day English version (with correct spellings) of Peter's letter. It's a bit easier to understand.

Gary:

I noticed your page at FamilyTreeMaker. I was woundering if you might tell me more about where you found out that Barbara Groner (who married 1. Nicholas Walter and 2. Daniel Crider) was the daughter of John Groner and Elizabeth. Her ancestry has been a souce of disagreement for some time. She died in 1835 in Gasconade Co., Missouri and is believed to be buried at the Gore / Barbarick Cemetery located just north of Bland, Missouri. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Paul Walter, Sr.- Revolutionary War Minute Man

(parts from North Carolina in The American Revolution by Hugh F. Rankin, Department of History– Tulane University and Voices of 1776 by Richard Wheeler) British commanders shown in Red, American in Blue

The most pressing problem facing any state at war is the military. Each year the Continental Congress called for more men to be furnished the Continental army. North Carolina and the other twelve states were each assigned quotas of men to provide for the Continental army. It was by no means an easy task to enlist the necessary number of soldiers. In fact, North Carolina and most of the other colonies were never successful in filling their quotas. Men were not eager to leave their families and farms to fight the British. Army pay was little enough to begin with, and was worth even less because of the almost valueless money. A large part of the population were Tories, who certainly wanted no part of an army fighting against that of their King. And so it went. Nevertheless, during the war, North Carolina raised a total of ten regiments for the Continental Line, furnishing between 6,086 and 7,663 men to the army.

Not all of the men who carried arms in the American Revolution fought as soldiers of the Continental army. By far the greater number who served did so as members of the militia. The militia included nearly every man in the State. When an able-bodied man reached the age of sixteen, he automatically became a member of the local militia. They were poorly trained. They sometimes had only one "muster," or training session, each year, and they often were drilled by men who knew nothing of the art of warfare. Militiamen were required to furnish their own weapons, and these ranged from rickety old muskets to the deadly accurate rifles of the frontiersmen. In many instances, the law said they could not be forced to fight outside the boundaries of the State unless they consented. As a result of haphazard organizations and preparations, the men of the militia usually were considered poor soldiers. They were seldom dependable in the face of an advancing enemy. Still, it has been estimated that as many as 20,000 North Carolinians took the field as militia against the enemy during the Revolutionary War.

Paul Walter was one of these North Carolinians who fought in the war for freedom.

April 1776- Paul Walter volunteered in the Company commanded by Capt. Barringer, Col. Locke and Gen. Griffith Rutherford. He was marched to Fayetteville, served one month for which he had volunteered and discharged in May by Captain John Barringer.

June 1776- Paul Walter volunteered in a company under Captain Caleb Phifer, Captain Will Houston, Colonel John Phifer and General Griffith Rutherford for three months.

Sept 1776- General Griffith Rutherford and Col. Andrew Williamson gathered a force of 2,400 men and marched into the Cherokee country. Most of these soldiers were from North Carolina, although there were some from South Carolina and Virginia. On their swing through the Cherokee country, they set fire to crops and burned at least thirty-six Cherokee towns. The Indians made one stand against the white men, but they were crushed in the brief battle and fled westward. Paul Walter was in this expedition against the Cherokee.

Sept 1776- Paul Walter was discharged in September of 1776 by Col. John Phifer after serving 3 months.

End Oct or Nov 1, 1778- Paul Walter volunteered for five months in a company commanded by Captain Will Houston, Lieutenant Stephen Alexander, Colonel Francis Locke and General Rutherford. They rendezvoused at Charlotte, NC, marched thence through South Carolina to near Charleston- thence near Augusta where they joined the Continental Troop under Lincoln, Commander-in-Chief (though there were other officers; whom Paul did not recollect). Paul Walker, Sr. - Revolutionary War Minute Man

The most pressing problem facing any state at war is the military. Each year the Continental Congress called for more men to be furnished the Continental army. North Carolina and the other States were each assigned quotas of men to provide for the Continental army. It was by no means an easy task to enlist the necessary number of soldiers. In both North Carolina and most of the other colonies, states found difficulty in filling their quotas. Men were not eager to leave their families and farms to fight for the meagre army pay/wages.

free enough to begin with, and was worth even less because of the almost valueless money. A large part of the population were Tories, who certainly wanted no part of an army fighting against that of their king. And on a more [illegible] during the war, North Carolina raised a total of ten regiments for the Continental Line, furnishing between 5,786 and 7,263 men to the army.

Not all of the men who carried arms in the American Revolution fought as soldiers of the Continental army. By far the greater number who served did so as members of the militia. The militia included nearly every man in the State. When an able-bodied man reached the age of sixteen, he automatically became a member of the local militia. They were poorly trained. They sometimes had only one "muster," or training session each year, and they often were drilled by men who knew nothing of the art of warfare. Militiamen were required to furnish their own weapons, and these ranged from rusty old muskets to the deadly accurate rifles of the frontiersmen. In many instances, the law said they could not be forced to fight outside the boundaries of the State unless they consented. As a result of haphazard organizations and procedures, the men of the militia usually were considered poor soldiers. They were seldom dependable in the face of an advancing enemy. Still, it has been estimated that as many as 20,000 North Carolinians took the field as militia against the enemy during the Revolutionary War.

Paul Walker was one of those North Carolinians who fought in the war for freedom.

April 1776- Paul Walker volunteered in the Company commanded by Capt. [illegible], Col. Locke and Gen. Griffith Rutherford. He was marched to Fayetteville, served one month for which he then volunteered and discharged in May by Captain John [illegible].

June 1776- Paul Walker volunteered in a company under Captain Caleb Phifer, Captain Will [illegible], Colonel John Phifer and General Griffith Rutherford for three months.

Sept. 1776 General Griffith Rutherford and Col. Andrew Williamson gathered a force of 2,400 men and marched into the Cherokee country. Most of these soldiers were from North Carolina, although there were some from South Carolina and Virginia. On their march through the Cherokee country, they set fire to crops and burned at least thirty-six Cherokee towns. The Indians made one stand against the white men, but they were defeated in the brief battle and fled westward. Paul Walker was in this expedition against the Cherokee.

Sept 1776- Paul Walker was discharged in September of 1776 by Captain John [illegible] after serving 3 months.

The Oct. or Nov. 1, 1779- Paul Walker volunteered for five months in a company commanded by Captain Will [illegible], [illegible], [illegible], Colonel Francis Locke and General Rutherford. They rendezvoused at Charlotte, NC, then marched through South Carolina to near Charleston, thence near Augusta where they joined the Continental troops under General Lincoln and Gen. Ashe (though there was a cannon engagement which Paul did not mention). He was then placed under Captain Craige in the Regiment under Colonel Elbert, was marched up the Savannah River to Augusta, crossed and then marched to Briar Creek.

Written by Eliza Wilkinson after a Whig victory at Beaufort on February 3, 1779- "It was not long," writes Eliza Wilkinson, "before our little band of patriots returned to their homes in triumph, excepting a few, who had sealed the cause with their blood." Soon afterward, Colonel Andrew Pickens of South Carolina defeated a band of Tories at Kettle Creek, Georgia (northwest of Augusta). The British now decided that they had extended their lines too far, and the garrison at Augusta was withdrawn, in easy marches, down the river. A large party of Americans under General John Ashe crossed the river at Augusta and pressed after. The result was the Battle of Briar Creek on March 3, 1779. Paul Walter was in the battle and saw General Ashe of the Militia.

For a second time the redcoats made use of a stealthy encircling maneuver. Once again the maneuver proved disastrous to their opponents according to an account by an unnamed British participant.-

"The enemy began a scattering fire of musketry and fired some cannon, but could not stand the spirited attack of Sir James Baird's light infantry and from that instant the success of the day was decided. They were pursued to the creek, into which, after throwing away their arms, the most active plunged and escaped by swimming. Their right had no means of escaping but over a lagoon very deep and broad, and then to cross the River Savannah. In that place numbers drowned and perished. Many were killed in the pursuit, and about one hundred taken prisoners. Seven pieces of cannon, several stand of colors, their baggage, arms, ammunition, and everything, in short, fell into the hands of the brave, victorious troops. Not a whole platoon of the rebel army escaped together, on our right or left.

The panic occasioned by the terror of the bayonet left them no alternative but that of plunging into the water, many of which, we are since informed, have been (seen) without any other clothes but a shirt and breeches, and without arms, numbers of them badly wounded. Few would have escaped if night had not come so soon. The loss on our side was one officer wounded, five privates killed and ten wounded."

After re-crossing the Savannah, Paul was placed again under his same original officers including Colonel Locke.

April 10, 1779- Paul was discharged by Colonel Locke after serving out five months.

March 1780- Paul volunteered under Captain McRee and General Davidson for three months, went to Ramsour's Mill, arrived there in the evening after the battle, was one of the guards that night. He served out three months and was discharged by Captain McRee in June of 1780.

1781- The town of Wilmington was important to the success of Lord Cornwallis's campaign. While he was pursuing Greene through the western part of North Carolina, things had been happening in the region along the coast. On January 28, 1781, a fleet of eighteen vessels flying the British flag dropped anchor in the Cape Fear River near Wilmington. On board were 450 redcoats under the command of Major James Craig.

In 1781 there were approximately 200 houses in Wilmington, and its population was almost 1,000. The populace, however, were civilians, unprepared to fight or defend their homes. There was no opposition as Craig took possession of the town. He immediately put his soldiers to work throwing up fortifications around the town. Patrols were sent out to round up all the prominent Whigs in the neighborhood. Some of the natives tried to escape. Thomas Bloodworth, the tax collector, loaded everything pertaining to his office on board a small vessel and dispatched it up the Cape Fear River. Craig's soldiers, after a twenty-mile ride across country, caught up with this boat, captured it, and then burned it.

Other patrols, mounted on the best horses of the Cape Fear region, rode constantly. Cornelius Harnett, who lived just outside of Wilmington, attempted to flee. He fell ill in Anson County, and there he was captured by Craig's men. Some say that his death soon after this was the result of his ill-treatment by the British. General John Ashe suffered a similar fate. He hid out in a swamp, but he was betrayed to the enemy by one of his servants. When he attempted to escape, he was shot in the leg. Soon afterwards he died of smallpox. Other leading Whigs were captured, some by the Tories, who turned them over to the British in Wilmington.

In February, Alexander Lillington and his militia stood fast and could not be dislodged by Craig at Heron Bridge.

Cornwallis's army rested a little over two weeks in Wilmington and then marched out of town. They marched slowly and almost deliberately into Duplin County. The entire countryside was terrorized. Tories and other hangers-on, who followed the British army like a light of vultures, plundered every farm and plantation along the way. Some homes roared up in a mass of flames and smoke-blackened chimneys marked the path of the marching column. Horses and cattle were driven off, and slaves were forced to come along with the army. Many Whigs loaded their families and most valuable possessions into wagons and hastened to a safer area.

Cornwallis met with no opposition until May 6, 1781. At Peacock's Bridge over Contentnea Creek (near Stantonsburg), were stationed 400 determined militia from Pitt County under Colonel James Gorham. This small group was no match for Tarleton and his men. Gorham's militia scattered. Tarleton was then sent across the Tar River to scout and disperse any Whigs who later might cause trouble. He succeeded at Swift Creek and Fishing Creek.

Tarleton received word that a fairly large group of NC militia was assembling at Halifax. He then approached the town from an unexpected direction and was able to surprise them. The ensuing fight was short.

Craig continued his activity at Wilmington and the surrounding vicinity.

Captain [illegible] in the Regiment under Colonel Elbert, was marched up the Savannah River to Augusta, crossed and then marched to Brier Creek.

Craig continued his activity at Wilmington and the surrounding vicinity.

Tories in eastern North Carolina continued their strikes against the despised Whigs. Some Whigs were forced to flee from their homes and hide in the swamps. When possible, they struck back. Craig managed to keep the Whigs of eastern North Carolina off balance most of the time. By August 1, 1781, Craig declared all the inhabitants of the area were to come into Wilmington and take the oath of allegiance to George III. If they refused, they would be suspected as being enemies of the King, and would be in danger of having their property confiscated and losing their lives. Few Whigs came in to take the oath. On August 1st, Craig marched out on an expedition to punish all those who had not complied with his requirements. His trail of destruction continued from Wilmington on to Rock Creek (near present day Wallace) and into New Bern.

On Tuesday, August 21, Craig marched toward Kinston. His plans to continue inland were interrupted by word that the Continental troops of General "Mad Anthony" Wayne had entered North Carolina on their way to join General Greene. The British hurriedly turned south towards Wilmington. But when the British left the occupied areas, the Whigs came out of hiding and began to gather in an effort to crush the loyalists.

The Tories were defeated in a full-scale battle at Elizabeth Town where the Tory Col. John Slingsby had been holding a number of Whig prisoners. Nineteen Tories were killed, wounded, or taken prisoner. Slingsby was among these, and later died of this wounds.

The Tories retaliated quickly. Colonel David Fanning, one of the most ruthless and daring of all the Tory leaders, hastened to the aid of the force at Elizabeth Town. He arrived too late. He received word that Colonel Thomas Wade and his group of Whigs were camped at Drowning Creek. He advanced toward their position and was joined in route by the Tories of Colonel Hector McNeil. Together they surprised Wade in a narrow section of Raft Swamp. This victory more than compensated for the Tory rout at Elizabeth Town.

The demonstration of strength by the Tories was one of the reasons why General Griffith Rutherford led his troops into the area. The General had been captured at the Battle of Camden and had spent much of the intervening time as a prisoner-of-war in Florida. When he was exchanged he again took the field against the enemy. He issued a call for volunteers. Paul Walter answered the call in September 1781. He joined the Calvary under Captain Jo Shinn, Major James White, Colonel Smith and General Griffith Rutherford. After two weeks of training and organizing the men, Rutherford moved towards Wilmington on October 1st.

In the neighborhood of that town, he deployed his troops over a large area and slowly began to close in upon the town. Several attacks by the Tories were brushed off. Like a great hand slowly squeezing an orange, he kept moving his men nearer to Wilmington.

Then suddenly, the picture completely changed. On November 17, 1781, Light Horse Harry Lee stopped by Rutherford's camp. He was returning from Virginia on his way to rejoin General Greene in South Carolina. Lee bore earthshaking news! He reported that on October 19, 1781, at Yorktown in Virginia, Lord Cornwallis had surrendered to General Washington. Rutherford's camp went wild. Shouts, war whoops, and cheers rang through the forests. Valuable gunpowder was wasted as muskets were fired repeatedly in wild celebration.

There was no time for a long celebration. Good news followed fast on the heels of good news. Reports came that Craig was evacuating Wilmington. Rutherford immediately moved his troops closer to the town. On November 18, 1781, the North Carolinians marched jauntily into Wilmington. Still in sight were the troopships transporting Craig's soldiers. The last British redcoat had left North Carolina soil.

Paul served out three months during this campaign and was discharged by Colonel Smith in Dec. of 1781.

The War for Independence was finally over, a new country was born and a new life began.

Thank you Paul Walter for your part in giving us the freedom we enjoy today.

Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress, passed June 7 1832-

State of North Carolina | Court of pleas and quarter sessions for Cabarrus
Cabarrus County | County, NC at Concord- October 15, 1832---

On this 15th day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, personally appeared in open Court before the Court of pleas and quarter sessions for Cabarrus County North Carolina now sitting Paul Walter a resident of Cabarrus County N.C. aged seventy-seven on the 9th day of November next. Who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated.

"In the month of April, I think, though I am not certain, 1776 in the County of Mecklenburgh where he now lives in that part now called Cabarrus. I volunteered in Company commanded by Capt. Barringer, Col. Locke, Genl. Griffith Rutherford-- was marched to Fayetteville, N.C,-- served out there one month for which I had volunteered and was discharged in the month of May 1776 by Capt. Barringer.

I again in the same county, in the month of June 1776 volunteered in a company under Caleb Phifer Capt- Will Houston Leut- John Phifer Col- & Griffith Rutherford Genl for three months- was in the expedition against the Cherokee Indians- served out three months- and was discharged in the month of September 1776 by Col. John Phifer-

I again in the same county volunteered in the month of October or first of November 1778 for five months- in a company commanded by Capt. Will Houston- Leut. Stephen Alexander- Col. Francis Locke- General Rutherford- rendezvoused at Charlotte, N.C, marched thence through South Carolina to near Charleston- thence to Parisburgh where we joined the Continental Troop under Lincoln- Com. in Chief-though there were inferior officers whom I do not recollect at this time----- I was then placed under Captain Craige- in the Regiment under Col. Elbert was marched up the Savannah River to Augusta- crossed there- and march down to Briar Creek, was in the Battle there- (March 1779) saw Genl. Ashe of the Militia there- we recrossed the Savannah and was placed again under the same officers- served out five months and was discharged about the last of April 1779 by- Col. Locke- which is here in Court- being the only discharge I have remaining of all I have received.

I again in the same county, became a volunteer in the month of March 1780 under Capt McRee-Genl Davidson for three months-went to Ramsour's Mill- arrived there in the Evening after the battle- was one of the guards that night- served out my three months and was discharged in the month June 1780 by Capt. McRee.

Again in the same county & state- in the month of September 1781- I joined the cavalry as a volunteer for three months, under Capt. Jo. Shinn- Major James White- Col. Smith- General Griffith Rutherford- marched to near Wilmington, N.C. where we heard the news of the capture of Lord Cornwallis. Served out the three months and was discharged in December 1781 by Co. Smith. He served in all in actual service fifteen (15) months- But during the interim he was always a minute-man- and he can safely say that in three years, he was not at home in all two months- being always engaged in the defense of his country. He was always a volunteer in the service- He was born in the state of Virginia on the 9th November 1755. About a year and a half after he was removed to North Carolina and settled in that part of part of Mecklenburgh County N.C. which has since the division of Mecklenburgh County been called "Cabarrus" where he now lives. He was a volunteer in the service- He has always in "N.C." lived on the same plantation. His discharge have all been lost or mislaid- His family Record is also lost- For proof of his service he refers to Abram Alexander- Geo. Barnhardt- Isaac Blackwelder & to his discharge from Col. Locke (herewith transmitted) And for his character for truth and their belief and the general belief of the whole county as to his service he refers to Genl. Paul Barringer and to D.M. Barringer, Esqr.

He hereby relinquishes any claim whatever to a previous annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency in any State.

O my people, hear my teaching; listen to the words of my mouth.
I will open my mouth in parables. I will utter hidden things, things from of old—what we have heard and known, what our fathers have told us.
We will not hide them from their children; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord, his power, and the wonders he has done.

11. Unknown^3 Walter (Nicholas^2, Wilhelm^1), daughter of Nicholas (#3) and Mary Walter, married Peter Boger. Peter received money from the elder Nicholas Walter Estate. The amount received was shown as part of his wife's portion. (page 18)

12. Nicholas^3 Walter (Nicholas^2, Wilhelm^1), son of Nicholas (#3) and Mary Walter was born between 1755 and 1768. He married Barbara Groner. Babara, the daughter of John Jacob Groner, Sr. and Elizabeth was born around 1771 in Pennsylvania.

Nicholas and Barbara lived in present day Township 5 along Little Cold Water Creek. This Nicholas received a land grant from Governor Alexander Martin on October 9, 1783, the same day brother Paul Walter received a grant. A copy of Nicholas' grant is on pages 33 and 34. In addition to the 176 acres he received with this grant, the younger Nicholas no doubt received land from his father's estate.

The younger Nicholas died in January of 1797 in Cabarrus County, North Carolina. The children of Nicholas and Barbara were:

+ 25. Margaret^4 Walter	b. abt 1788
+ 26. Elizabeth Walter	b. Jun 04, 1790
+ 27. Paul Walter	b. btwn 1790-95
+ 28. Peter Walter	b. abt 1790

Widow Barbara married a neighbor, Daniel Krider/Crider, on February 8, 1799 at Pine Church (also known as Dutch Pine Meeting House and Union Lutheran Church) located five miles east of Salisbury, North Carolina on Bringle Ferry Road.

The Criders were Swiss-German Mennonites who had settled in Rowan County, North Carolina. Daniel, son of Jacob and Barbara Crider, was born around 1770 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Daniel's family moved to North Carolina when he was a small boy.

Barbara Walter was the mother of four children by her previous marriage, two (Peter and Elizabeth) of who eventually became early day settlers in Gasconade County, Missouri.

After her marriage to Daniel Crider, six children were born-

+ 29. James Crider married Meekey Owens on February 9, 1826	b. abt 1799
+ 30. Joseph Crider married Priscilla Reed on September 14, 1826	b. Nov 03, 1801
+ 31. Daniel Crider, Jr. married Elizabeth Reed on August 24, 1826	b. Feb 27, 1804
+ 32. Abraham Crider married May Owens on November 5, 1829	b. abt 1809
+ 33. Amelia Crider married Benjamin Yates on April 9, 1829	b. abt 1810
+ 34. Rachel Crider married Thomas V. Shockley on March 26, 1829.	b. Oct 11, 1812

Barbara and Daniel continued to live on the land that she and her children had inherited from her first husband, Nicholas Walter. The Walter land consisted of nearly 255 acres, located on the west side of Little Cold Water Creek. North Carolina laws permitted use of the land by the parent or guardian, (their mother), until all the children were of legal age. At that time, in 1816, the Cabarrus Court appointed deputies to survey, divide and partition the acreage, making allowance for the widow's dower and each of the four children. A plat was drawn up showing this sub-division, and presented to the Court for approval. This plat named the heirs of Nicholas Walter along with the Lot numbers and the amount of acreage allotted to each. This plat is dated August 29, 1816. The following were named as widow and heirs.

- Dower- Barbara Crider (widow) 58 ½ acres
- Lot 1- Elizabeth Walter (now Barbarick), 42 ¾ acres
- Lot 2- Margaret Walter, or Suther, deceased, 41 ½ acres
- Lot 3 Paul Walter, 41 ½ acres
- Lot 4 Peter Walter, 50 acres

After the legal procedures were complete, each child sold their share of the land. (see pages 38, 39 & 40)

After the partition of the Nicholas Walter land in 1816 by the Court, the widow's portion that was Barbara's, only amounted to fifty-eight and one-half acres. It is evident that their decision to sell this and relocate elsewhere came soon after the Court's action.

Economic conditions would have been the prime factor in making the decision to relocate. Their small acreage was hardly sufficient land on which to raise and support their family, then too, the War of 1812 had ended and there was much talk of lands available in the west.

In 1810, aside from farming, the principal industry in Cabarrus County was the looms that turned out thirty-nine thousand, five hundred and sixty yards of plain and mixed materials annually. The census notes that two hundred and fifty-seven of these looms existed. The area was then as it is now, an important center of the textile world. Other industries in the county were as follows: sixty-six stills that turned out twenty thousand, two hundred and twenty-five gallons of distilled spirits annually; two tanyards that tanned eight hundred hides annually; also, one hatter shop that produced up to three thousand, seven hundred hats per year.

By 1817, all of Daniel Crider's step-children had married. The oldest, Margaret, married Rinehold Suther on July 18, 1806. She was deceased by 1816, when the Court division of the land was made. Her son, Joseph Suther, was named as heir to receive his mother's share.

The next child, Elizabeth, married Frederick Barbarick January 30, 1809. She sold her portion of her father's estate in 1816. Paul Walter married Margaret Barnhardt on October 3, 1815. He sold his share of his father's estate in December of 1816. The youngest of the children, Peter Walter, married Sarah (Sally) Neisler on November 17, 1816, one day before he sold his share of his father's estate.

All records indicate that the families of Daniel Crider and Frederick Barbarick left NC at the same time. Peter Walter did not join in that migration; he was still in Cabarrus County in July of 1819, when he witnessed the sale of the George Crider land to Thomas Cooper.

Peter's son, John Walter, was born in North Carolina in 1819. Peter was in Gasconade County, Missouri by 1828, when he registered as a voter.

From Concord, North Carolina the closest route to the west was over the Great Smokey Mountains and through Cumberland Gap, on the Tennessee and Kentucky line. Cumberland Gap served as the portal, through which the horse-drawn wagons passed, carrying the pioneer families and their possessions westward. From Cumberland Gap, the trail lead across Kentucky to the Ohio River. On the Ohio, there were flatboats that would carry the travelers down to the Mississippi and to settlements like St. Genevieve, or St. Louis. Across the Ohio River from Kentucky were the new areas that were being settled in the Northwest Territory. The state of Indiana had been admitted to the union in 1816; the Indian lands, comprising the extreme southern section of the state, were now being settled. To the west of Indiana lay the Territory of Illinois. Even farther west lay the Territory of Missouri. All of these areas were comprised of a great amount of public land. This land could be "pre-emptied" by the settler by a short residence and payment of $1.25 per acre.

Along with their livestock and other personal possessions, they brought with them many of the customs and folk lore of the North Carolina countryside. These included a love for good fiddle music as well as being proficient in the arts of hunting and fishing. Also the women folk who excelled in southern culinary art brought their recipes for the preparation of dishes; thus they were able to introduce these customs and ways of living in the new neighborhood in the west where they would settle permanently. As a result Daniel Crider Sr. has been labeled as having been "A Mountaineer From North Carolina" by some writers of history. But he was not a mountain man as the customs would seem to indicate. His prime interest was good land and how to make it produce. This trait came as a result of his Pennsylvania heritage. He did embrace many of the customs of southern living during his years in North Carolina. All these traits and customs were aids in helping to settle the "new land" west of the Mississippi.

Arriving at the settlement of Gasconade at the mouth of the Gasconade River in 1818, the family lived for a few years along Pin-Oak Creek to the north of Mount Sterling. The area is now shown on topographical maps as "Crider Hollow". On April 5, 1832, Daniel pre-emptied an 80 acre tract of land (at $1.25 per acre) in section nineteen, township forty-two, range six west. This land is in Third Creek Township and is traversed by Crider Creek (six miles north of Bland) that was named after the settler. This land was also south of Mt. Sterling. Daniel lived there the remainder of his life. He died in June of 1842. His wife, Barbara, died a few years earlier.

No markers have ever been found for the graves of Daniel Crider, Sr. and his wife Barbara. Some conclude "that Daniel Crider had been buried in the Barbarick Cemetery" – for the following reasons:

1. It was in the general proximity of the neighborhood in which he lived at the time of his death, as evidenced by his last will and testament.
2. That the Barbarick Cemetery was located on land owned by Daniel's step-daughter and her husband, Elizabeth and Frederick Barbarick.
3. That Daniel's wife, Barbara Crider, died before he did. Also, that it was reasonable that she would have been buried in the plot on her daughters' land.
4. That Daniel Crider would have been buried beside his wife.
5. That the Barbarick cemetery was used extensively by at least two branches of the Crider family (children of Daniel) for the remainder of the century following Daniel's death in 1842.

I visited Gasconade County, Missouri in June of 1998. Driving north on State Highway 'A' it becomes evident that much of the land has not been disturbed since the early 1800's.

Franklin County, Missouri highlighted above in Orange is where many families with the Reed surname settled. One of these families, the John Reed family originally settled near Union, where Joseph Clinton Crider married Priscilla Reed, the daughter of John and Drusilla (Durbin) Reed on 14 September 1826. Later, John Reed and his wife moved to the west and settled in Gasconade County highlighted in yellow.

Slavery had existed since 235 years B. C. and was thought to be perfectly in accord with the Holy Scripture. But by carefully reading Genesis 9, 18-28, one will see that the curse was placed upon Ham by his father Noah; that he was to be a servant to his brothers, Shem and Japheth and that it was not a decree of God.

Opposition to slavery in this country began to grow, especially in the northern states long before the Civil War, but in the southern states the idea that it was right strengthened as the years went by. Supporting these opposing views, were two publications: Uncle Tom's Cabin and Cotton is King. These two books, more than any other thing, created that solidarity of thought in the north and south that was adamant.

At least three of the early settlers in this section of the country were slave owners. Among the Terrill family, who had immigrated from Tennessee in the early part of the eighteenth century to Missouri, was a family named Queesinberry, who owned some slaves. I understand there were four, and they are all buried in the Grove Dale Cemetery. However, monuments were erected to only two. These monuments were made from large pieces of diaspore clay, hewn out by my own grandfather, John Stockton, and placed for these two Queesinberry slaves. The lettering has faded but some of it is still discernable after perhaps better than ninety years.

Then there was my own great, great grandfather, John Reed, who came from Ohio to Missouri at about the same time and had acquired a family of slaves that at the time of being set free consisted of five people: Ben Reed, Mott Reed, the father and mother, and their children, Jim, Jack, and Tine.

When President Lincoln issued his Emancipation Proclamation in 1862, Grandfather Reed informed Ben that he was now a free man and could make his own decisions. He elected to move to a different community. He was fitted up with a team and wagon, plenty of foodstuff to last for quite some time, and what household goods they required. They settled themselves on the edge of Lanes Prairie, near the site of the Vichy Air Port. Just how they made out, no one knows.

When my grandfather, Joseph C. Crider Jr., whose mother was the only child of the Reed family and who had died when Joseph C. Jr., was born, his grandmother took him to raise and when he grew to manhood, had married and had two daughters when he went away to the Civil War.

His family stayed on with the Reeds, during his absence. On his return home in 1865 help was very scarce and hard to get. He went in search of their ex-slaves, located them and hired Ben to come back and work. On their return, it was discovered that a great change had come over Ben. Instead of that meek and obedient character he had always been, he was now a strong willed, independent individual. After a year or two, they finally had to let them go.

This time the family moved to Washington, Missouri and no doubt, have descendants there today. My mother, who being the eldest child of the J. C. Crider family, was about six years old when Ben and his family left the last time, had a very vivid recollection of the family and recounted this story to me many times.

After Grandfather Reed's death in 1866, the old homestead passed to my grandfather J. C. Crider Jr. It is now owned by Richard L. Terrill, whose wife is a great, great granddaughter of the Reeds. Just in front of their lovely modern home, stands a very large maple tree that marks the site of the old Negro cabin, whose ruins are still vivid in my recollection. Little do we think today when we see children playing over these grounds enjoying to the fullest the air of freedom that once it was tread upon by the feet of slaves.

The third family of slaves was owned by the Edward Luster family, of what is now known as Old Cleavesville, and who incidentally was a great grandfather of my wife. The slaves of these two families, the Reeds and Lusters, often visited with each other. How they were disposed of, or what became of them I was never able to learn. I did gather this much information, none of these slaves were ever sold out of the family or ever mistreated, and if they had died, as in the Terrill family, they would have been given a decent and respectable burial.

The institution of slavery is the darkest blot on the fair pages of our American History. Through sacrificial effort this great wrong has been redressed. The ugly wounds of four years of Civil war have healed. We no longer distinguish between the Blue and the Gray, the Stars and Bars of the Southern Confederacy have sunk into the dust of ages, but Old Glory with her forty-eight stars still floats over the greatest Nation of the earth and with our millions of khaki-clad boys to protect it, it is going to stay there.

For family and descendants of N. B. Stockton, turn to Sarah Ellen (Crider) Stockton under Joseph Clinton and Ann E. Crider section of Chapter VI.

THE REED FAMILY

The Reed (may also be Read) family, according to historians, were in Missouri at a very early date. The Goodspeed History of Franklin County, Missouri mentions the family of John and Mary (Hooper) Reed. It states that they were natives of Kentucky, and that they moved to Franklin County in 1811, also that John was a son of Edward and Margaret Reed, natives of near Lexington, Kentucky. The article goes on to state that John Reed was a soldier of the War of 1812, and that he served in the Missouri Rangers at a very early day.

The volume "Missouri Pioneers" shows on the Franklin County tax list in 1819 (all in St. John Township) Edward Reed, George Reed Jr., Leonard Reed and John Read. The Goodspeed History states that John and Mary Reed were the parents of six children, one of whom was named, B. F. Reed. It is reasonable to assume that those on the 1819 tax list were also the children of John and Mary Reed. There is also the marriage of Leonard Reed and Rhoda Veach on 11 January 1827 given in "Missouri Pioneers".

Gasconade County was formed from a part of Franklin County in 1820. Also the Goodspeed History of Gasconade County states that Henry Reed on the Bourbeuse was one of the first settlers in the county area. The 1828 voting list of Gasconade County shows two Reed names who were eligible voters at that time.

Early Franklin County deed records show the acquisition of land as follows: John Reed Jr. of Pacific, Sec. 11, Twsp. 43, - 2E, on 12 May 1826. Henry Reed, also of Pacific, Sec. 12, Twsp. 43, - 2E. 6 December 1820; and Edward Reed of Oakfield, Sec. 27, Twsp. 44, - 2E, on 22 August 1821. All of this would have been in the present area of Franklin County and it would seem that those named may have been coming into that area at about that time. All were probably closely related to John Reed who arrived in Franklin County in 1811.

The fact that Henry Reed was named as an early settler in Gasconade County would account for one of the names on the 1828 voting list. The other name on the 1828 list was Leonard Reed, who is shown in the Gasconade census of 1840, living in the Cleavesville neighborhood and was between fifty and sixty years of age. Both Henry and Leonard were also shown on the petition to move the county seat of Gasconade County in April of 1828. We have no information as to the families of either of these, except that the daughter of either Henry or Leonard was married to Daniel Crider Jr. in Gasconade County, on 23 August 1826. She was Elizabeth Reed who was born in Kentucky on 23 August 1812. She was most likely the daughter of Henry as we have not found the name Leonard used in naming any of her children or other descendants.

By 1840, there were four other heads of households by the name of Reed in the Cleavesville community. There were: Sylvester, William, Edward and A. Reed. All were of a younger generation and were probably sons of Henry or Leonard Reed, or both. A deed record in Gasconade County shows that Henry Reed sold an eighty acre tract to Robert Skinner on 10 April 1845. It was described as the E. 1/2 of the N.E. Qr. of Sec. 26, Twsp. 41, R. 5. On the same day he conveyed a forty acre tract to William Bumpass described as the S. W. Qr. of the N. W. Qr. of Sec. 2S, Twsp. 41, R. 5. The fact that these lands are not located in the Cleavesville community would seem to indicate that Elizabeth was not his daughter, as following their marriage Daniel and Elizabeth settled in the Cleavesville community and seeming later they acquired some of the Reed land there that was sold by Daniel and his second wife. On 7 March 1851, they conveyed an eighty acre tract to Elisia Rogers described as the W. 4 of the S. E. Qr. of Sec. 21, Twsp. 41, R. 6 W. They also conveyed other tracts in Sec.'s 28 and 20 about this same time. They were tracts that had been preempted by Daniel from the United States Government.

There is also a record of a transfer of land by Henry Reed and Rachel Reed Jr. to Hiram Reed on 28 August 1846, described as the E. 1/2 of S. E. Qr. of Sec. 21, Twsp. 41, R. 6 W- 80 acres. Hiram Reed married Lucy Durbin, daughter of Phillip and Lucy Durbin. In later years they sold all their holdings in Gasconade County and relocated in Webster County, Missouri, where they spent the remainder of their lives. It appears that Hiram was a son of Henry and Rachel Reed Jr.; Rachel is shown [illegible] head of a household in the census of 1860, indicating that her husband was deceased by that time. The children and descendan[illegible] of Hiram and Lucy Reed in include the following:

(1) Phillip Reed, born 18 April 1852, married Margaret Matilda Shockley, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Theresa (Durbin) Shockley.

They had five children.
A. Emma Reed married Jacob Letterman.
B. Bridget Reed married E. M. Wantland.
C. Jase Reed married Robert Garner.
D. Nexa Reed married T. J. Wantland.
E. Lucey Reed married R. Elmer White.

Known to have been a brother of Elizabeth Reed who married Daniel Crider, was James Reed who was born in Missouri about 1825. His father and mother were both born in Kentucky. He and his wife Frances (who was born about 1830) are shown with their family in the 1880 census of Bandera County, Texas. James may have gone to California as a single man and married there, or he may have married soon before leaving Missouri. Their children were all born in California.

(1) Solomon Reed, born in California about 1854.
(2) Mary Jane Reed
(3) James B. Reed
(4) Roosaca Reed
(5) J. H. Reed
(6) Julia Reed
(7) Rachel Reed
(8) Susan Reed

Leaving California sometime in the 1870's they moved to Bandera County, Texas, where they spent the remainder of their lives and where their descendants are still to be found.

The exact relationship between the Reeds that settled along the Dry Fork (Creek) of the Bourbeuse River at a very early date and John Reed who settled there in the late 1830's is unknown to us, except to surmise that all were closely related. Relying on speculation, it would seem that Henry and Leonard were brothers and that John who came a bit later was also a brother.

Likely the John Reed who entered land in Franklin County, Missouri, in May of 1826, and the John who later came west to Gasconade County in the late 1830's was one and the same. His wife was Drusilla Durbin to whom he was married in Barren County, Kentucky, on 30 November 1807. John who was born in 1789 was a minor at the time of his marriage and the record was countersigned by Leon (Leonard) Reed who apparently was signing his consent on the marriage bond. Whether or not Leon was an older brother or father is unknown to us. From the Gasconade County census of 1840, we find that Leonard was fifty to sixty years of age in 1840, while John gave his age as forty to fifty years, showing that Leonard was the elder of the two. There was a Leonard Reed Sr. and Leonard Reed Jr., shown in the census of Barren County, Kentucky, in 1800 - both heads of households. Also there is the will record of Leonard Reed filed in Woodford County, Kentucky, in 1808 that mentions "my mother Jane Lenard Reed".

After the marriage of their daughter Priscilla to Joseph Crider Sr. (recorded in Marriage License Record A, page 22) in Franklin County, John and Drusilla Reed also moved to the Cleavesville community of Gasconade County. We find the first mention of John Reed in Gasconade County records on 16 March 1829, when he and James Caldwell were witnesses to the conveyance of land, known as the Pay Down Mill site, from Charles Lane to Peter Walter (Gasconade County Book A, page 79-80).

On 21 September 1838, John Reed made application and payment ($50.00) for the forty acre tract on which he established his home and later came to be known as the "Old Crider Homestead". It is legally described as S. E. Qr. of the S. W. Qr. of Sec. 20, Twsp. 41, R. 6 W. He did not acquire additional land until 1852. This can probably be best explained by the fact that his o[illegible] daughter and her husband, Joseph Crider Sr., had acquired an eighty acre tract directly to the south, and that they had a partnership farming venture in operation using Joseph's land and John Reed's slaves. They all lived together in the Reed homestead and this arrangement continued until the death of Joseph's wife Priscilla in the late 1830's. At that time John Reed acquired the eighty acre tract from his son-in-law.

On 11 October 1844, John Reed conveyed to Peter R. Kenrick, then Catholic bishop of the diocese of St. Louis, a parcel of land in the north area of his original homestead tract. This was for Church and cemetery purposes.

A small log Church was erected there that was used as a place for worship for the next sixty years. The cemetery has been used continuously as a burial place until the present time.

On 24 January 1852, John Reed acquired from the United States Government an additional forty acre tract described as N. W. Qr. of the N. E. Qr. of Sec. 29, Twsp. 41, R. 6 W. Then on 18 March 1852, he acquired from the Government another forty acre tract described as S. W. Qr. of the S. E. Qr. of Sec. 20, Twsp. 41, R. 6 W.

Finally on 21 September 1854, John Reed acquired from the Government an additional eighty acre tract described as W. 1/2 of the S. W. Qr. of Sec. 20, Twsp. 41, R. 6 W. for the payment of $10.00. This brought his total acreage to two hundred and eighty acres, land that he conveyed to three of his grandsons.

As John and Drusilla Reed were the parents of only one child, Priscilla who had married Joseph Crider Sr., and having in their possession a sizeable quantity of land, money and slaves they began the distribution of their wealth among their grandchildren in the late 1850's. Both were then aged and wished to convey their holdings while still living. They conveyed the original forty acre tract (homestead site) and the adjacent eighty acre tract to the south to their youngest grandchild, Joseph C. Crider. The tract of eighty acres to the east was conveyed to their grandson Hiram Crider. He died at Vicksburg, Mississippi during the Civil War and his father, sisters and brothers became legal heirs. They in turn conveyed this tract to Joseph C. Crider. The eighty acre tract to the west was conveyed to their grandson David Crider. This acreage is the site of the Crider Cemetery where the Reeds and many of the Crider deceased are buried.

With the exception of the tract where the cemetery is located, the remainder of these lands are still held by descendants of John and Drusilla Reed. Joseph C. Crider conveyed the eighty acre tract to the east to his son Peter W. Crider, and this came to be known as the Peter Crider farm and is presently held by his son Edward C. Crider.

The original homestead tract along with the adjoining eighty acre tract to the south was the home of Joseph C. Crider until his death in 1921, when the land was divided into shares among his children. Later it was acquired by a granddaughter Edna (Lacy) Terrill and her husband Richard who retain its ownership to the present time.

Both John Reed and Henry (or Leonard?) Reed were the ancestors of untold numbers of members of two branches of the Crider family. For the most part, all their children and grandchildren raised large families as is documented in the biographical sections of this volume.

As a supplement to this sketch certain land acquisition records, a copy of the marriage record of John and Drusilla Reed, as well as an article prepared by the late Napoleon Bonapart "N. B."Stockton that names and describes the Reed slaves, is being included. We believe that these original records from the National Archives and County records will be of interest. The article by N. B. Stockton was prepared some years ago for newspaper publication.

RECALLS FAMILIES IN BONDAGE IN SLAVE DAYS IN EARLY MARIES COUNTY HISTORY

By N. B. Stockton

There are few people living in this section of the country today, who realize that slavery once existed right here at our door. The institution of slavery, that great issue that divided our states and brought about the secession, finally led to the Civil War.

We, in this generation can hardly feature how a race of people could be put in subjection and held as ordinary chattels; bartered at the auction block just as we buy and sell livestock and other chattels of today.

Copy of John Reed and Drusilla (Drusey) Durbin's marriage Certificate dated 30 November 1807. John was a minor, (eighteen years old). Note that Leon (Leonard?) Reed's signature appears also, probably because John was a minor.

[illegible]DEKER-WEHMEYER-ENGELAGE-LANGHORST

A[illegible]st Redeker came to Morrison about 1884 to work as a clerk in the Louis Thee Store. His boyhood was spent in the Missouri River bottom just to the west in Osage County where his parents, Heinrich and Charlotte Redeker owned a farm. With the exception of ten years spent in Warren County, he lived the remainder of his life in Morrison. Here, he operated his own store, Redeker's Store, from 1903 to 1937. In 1888, he married Bertha Wehmeyer of Morrison. Her early years had also been spent in the Osage County bottom land to the west, but with her parents, Christian and Mary Wehmeyer, took up residence in Gasconade County in 1882.

Christian H. Wehmeyer was a stockman. He and his wife were active in the German Methodist Espicopal Church. A resident of Morrison, he platted and added to the city a large part of the Morrison "hill area" as Wehmeyer's Additions. Christian H. Wehmeyer died in 1921.

[illegible]y Wehmeyer was the daughter of Jacob and Anna Rusch who immigrated to America from Switzerland about 185[illegible]. They came to Hermann. Early Hermann city records show wages paid to Jacob Rusch for work done on city streets and bridges. With the outbreak of the Civil War, he joined the Gasconade County Regiment of the Missouri Home Guards. He died of pneumonia in 1863 at a military hospital near St. [illegible] and was buried at Jefferson Barracks.

[illegible]win E. Redeker was born in Morrison in 1906. His entire life has been spent at Morrison. After working in his father's store, he went to work in 1929 at the Richland Bank (now Community Bank) where he is still employed. Most of his work years were spent as managing cashier. He married Beatrice Engelage in 1929. She too was born in Morrison in 19[illegible].

Christian H. Wehmeyer

Christian Engelage migrated from St. Charles County to the [illegible] community in 1866. After the death of his first wife, [illegible]alena, he married Wilhelmina Brinkmann of the First Creek community. She immigrated to the area from Germany about 1868 with her parents, Friedrich and Johanna Brinkm[illegible] Engelages later farmed two miles east of Morrison in the Missouri River bottom.

[illegible]d A. Engelage grew to manhood at Morrison. After additional schooling, he taught school at Gasconade, Morrison, and finally one and a half years at the German School in Hermann. He went into the mercantile business at Morrison in 19[illegible] later combining this with undertaking. He married Rebecca Langhorst in 1903. She too had taught school, at Mud Creek, Pershing, and Owensville. She later played a full-time active role in their business operations.

[illegible]ecca Engelage was the daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Langhorst of Owensville. As young people, they came to Hermann in the late 1860's. He was from Indiana. She, Elizabeth H[illegible]mehl, immigrated from Germany by way of St. Louis and was followed in the 1870's by her mother, Mary. Langhorsts were married at Hermann in 1870. In 1879, they moved to Owensville. Henry Langhorst did some farming, but was also a carpenter and stone mason. At the time of his death in 19[illegible]3, the Republican Banner reported, "He helped build more houses in Owensville than any other one man". Elizabeth Langhorst died near Rosebud in 1932.

REED

In 1828 two Reeds appeared on the list of qualified Gasconade County voters — Henry Reed and Leonard Reed. Their names also appeared on the petition to move the county seat that same year. Census schedules indicate that both lived in the southern section of the county. The Goodspeed writers in 1888, stated that Henry Reed was one of the county's first white settlers and lived on the Bourbeuse. Subsequent land records show that his lands were on the Dry Fork of the Bourbeuse in Brush Creek Township. In 1845 Henry Reed conveyed two tracts to Robert Skinner and William Bumpass. Both were in Twsp. 41 North, Range 5 West, with Skinner getting land in Section 26, Bumpass in Section 25. Henry and his family were enumerated in the census of 1830. He was 40-50 years old. His wife, three sons, and three daughters were also enumerated. As names of family members were not given in the census prior to 1850 the names of Henry's children have not been determined.

Leonard Reed Sr., aged 50-60 years in 1830, and his wife, three sons, and two daughters, lived near Cleavesville where several other Reeds were living then. Others were Leonard Reed Jr., John Reed, Sylvester Reed, William Reed, Edward Reed, A Reed, and Henry Reed Jr. Of these, John Reed was 40-50 years of age and is believed to have been a brother of Henry and Leonard. As with Henry Sr., the names of the children of Leonard Reed Sr. have not been determined, except to speculate that one son was Leonard Reed Jr.

John Reed, born in Kentucky 9-16-1789, according to a Bible record, was married to Drusilla Durbin in Barren County, Kentucky, 11-30-1807. Being under legal age his marriage bond was signed by Leon Reed. This was likely the same Leonard that settled in Gasconade County, an older brother of John. Drusilla Durbin was born in Kentucky 2-14-1782. She was a cousin or other close relative of Philip Durbin, who also settled near the Cleavesville community at about the same time as did John and Drusilla Reed.

When John Reed and family arrived in Missouri they settled near Pacific, Franklin County. They resided there until the mid-1830's when they established themselves in Gasconade County. They were the parents of one daughter, Priscilla, who was born 9-2-1809 in Kentucky. She was married to Joseph Crider Sr., in Franklin County 9-14-1826. Following their marriage Joseph and Priscilla made their home near Cleavesville. Her parents also came and bought public land close by.

John Reed's land was located in Section 20, immediately west of the old Cleavesville school. He later bought land in Section 29 from his son-in-law, also an 80-acre tract in Section 20 from the U.S. Government in 1856 at 12½ cents per acre. The latter tract, known as the David Crider farm, contains the Crider Cemetery, an area landmark.

Before his death in 1865, John Reed had devised all of his lands to his grandchildren. One tract went to David Crider, while the lands in Section 20 and 29 that comprised his homestead went to Joseph C. Crider and the tract in Section 20 near Cleavesville went to Hiram Crider. Hiram died at Vicksburg, Mississippi, during the Civil War and the land passed to his brothers and sisters. It ultimately passed to Peter W. Crider and is now the homesite of Edward Crider. The homestead tract is now held by Richard Terrill and his wife. Edna is a great-great-granddaughter of John Reed, also a granddaughter of Joseph C. Crider who spent his entire life at this homesite.

REED — READ

Henry Reed, Jr. was born 30 December, 1802 near Lexington, Kentucky and came to Franklin County around 1810 with a large number of the Reed families from Barren County, Kentucky. In about 1823 he married Rachel Robertson, born July 14, 1806. In 1823 he sold his Franklin County land and moved to Gasconade County in the Cleavesville Bland area amid the Kentucky Reed families who settled there in the 1820's. Here he farmed until his death in 1849. He is buried in the Crider Cemetery located on the Crider farm near Bland. A Catholic Church was built at the Crider Cemetery in the 1840's. It was called St. Michael's at Reed's Settlement, John Reed being instrumental in its establishment. The Reeds and Criders were the first settlers in the vicinity.

Henry and Rachel Reed, Jr. had nine children: Hiram (6-6-(Logston; Durbin; Rhoda (5-9-1827); Andrew Jackson (11-8-1829) married Sarah Jane Brewley October 29, 1854. David, (9-24-1833); Daniel Viggie, (4-14-1836) married Caroline Priscilla Read March 11, 1855; Malinda (12-9-1838) married Havier C. Durbin on February 12, 1854; Margaret (3-22-1841) married Jacob Hamilton; Mary Jane (11-30-1844) and Moses (4-11-1847).

After the Civil War most of the family moved to the southern counties of Missouri. Rachel (Robertson) Reed with children Hiram, Malinda, Margaret and their families moved to Webster and Laclede Counties in the Conway area. Rachel died in 1881. Hiram died August 21, 1894 and his wife Lucy died in 1910. They are buried at Conway in the Reed Catholic Cemetery, the land for the cemetery being donated by Hiram Reed. The church was built in the fall of 1876.

In 1867 Daniel Viggie Reed, the fifth child of Henry and Rachel Reed, Jr. moved to Texas County, Missouri, settling near Cabool where he died of typhoid on August 27, 1869, leaving his widow Caroline (Read) Reed with four small boys: Albert Alexander (10-31-1857 to 11-15-1921) married Sarah Ann Pool; Robert Henry (1-14-1860) married Laura India Slankard; William Columbus (6-3-1863 to 2-14-1926) married Mary Etta Burton; David Orlando (9-8-1868 to 5-20-1927) married Rhoda Cordelia Elliott.

Caroline Priscilla Read, wife of Daniel Viggie Reed was born in Marion County, Tennessee, on September 6, 1835. She was the second of a dozen children born to Robert W. Read (born in 1810 in North Carolina) and Evaline C. Hulvey (born in 1812 in Tennessee). The other children were: George J., (1833) died of smallpox in 1855; William Conrad (1837); Elizabeth (1839); Columbus (1840) died in the Civil War; Emanuel (1842) died in Civil War; Henry (12-26-1843) married Mary McMillin, and spent a good part of his life improving education in Gasconade County. He died in 1883 and is buried at Canaan, Missouri; Mathilda (1845); Mary Ann (1847); Benjamin B. (1849); Thomas L. (1852); and Sarah Jane (1854).

This Read family moved to Gasconade County in 1840, from Marion County, Tennessee, with the Conrad Hulvey family and settled on land south of Bland on Jake's Prairie. Robert W. Read, a Baptist elder, helped establish the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church there in 1844 and performed marriages during the 1850's.

After the Civil War they moved to Texas County, settling near Cabool where Robert W. Read was one of the charter members of the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. He died in July, 1869 of diptheria and is buried in the Pleasant Hill Baptist Cemetery along with his wife Evaline C. (Hulvey) Read who died in 1874. His daughter, Caroline Priscilla, died April 2, 1923 and is buried there beside her husband, Daniel Viggie Reed, son of Henry and Rachel (Robertson) Reed Jr.

FRED J. REHMERT

Fred Rehmert, or Fritz as he was known by his friends, was born in Germany January 6, 1832. He lived there until fourteen years of age at which time he came to the United States and settled near Drake, Missouri. As the ships of those days were powered by wind it took six weeks for the journey.

When Fritz was coming over on the ship from Germany he and some other boys rigged string and a bent pin to catch fish. As they were leaning over the rail the captain came along and whacked them on the rear with a piece of rope and made them return to their cabins. Although the boys didn't appreciate the rope it was for their own good because they could have been washed overboard and probably never seen again.

In the year 1856 Fritz was united in marriage with Minnie Brinkmann. To this union nine children were born. Three died in infancy.

Minnie, the oldest, married Louis Miller and they lived in the Belle area. They had two children: Emma Hinson (deceased) and George.

Henry (29 June 1870-15 January 1943) was twice married. The first wife was Mary Anna Morgan (5 May 1872-20 September 1906). They had seven children, Clarence J. (18 June 1894-12 February 1971), Sarah Eva (7 March 1896-28 April 1978), Minnie Ethel (4 June 1897-3 March 1911), Edmond Lewis (28 February 1899-25 June 1968), Emily (born in 1900)

Later Henry married Emma Nicks (1[illegible] June 1880-3 July 1969). They spent their lifetime in and around the Owensville area. They had seven children: Melva Mary Ellen Howard (born 23 November 1908), Arthur Earl (7 December 191[illegible]-16 May 1956), William Raimon (born 15 February 1914), Charley Wilber (born 14 July 1916), Florence Olga Meck (born [illegible] November 1920), Raymond Harold (born 8 July 1924) and Dorothy Lee Froelker (born 11 December 1928).

William married Lucy Boehme of Kansas where they made their home. They had a daughter: Leona Wright. They had four other children who died before reaching maturity.

Hermann married Emma Uffmann. They had two sons: Dan (deceased) and Louis.

John married Mary Uffmann, a sister to Emma. They had no children. Both Hermann and John lived in Kansas with their families.

George married Lela Beanie of Kansas. They had six children: Fred, Noland, Verle, Justin, Viola and Rosalie. They also made their home in Kansas.

Mrs. Rehmert died in the year 1901. Soon after, Fred went to Kansas where he spent most of his time with his children. He passed to his reward 30 June 1932 at the age of one-hundred years, five months and twenty-two days. He had several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His body was shipped to Missouri for burial at Atkins Cemetery near Mt. Sterling, Missouri.

Although he lived to a ripe old age, those who cared for him never felt burdened. He was a man of prayer and spent much time in silent and audible prayer along with singing good old gospel songs.

He was converted early in life and became a member of the Methodist Church. The life he lived and the influence he cast on those who knew him best will live on in the lives of others.

THOMAS REIMER

On the rainy Thursday of February 21, 1974, Rev. and Mrs. Tom Reimer and sons arrived in Bay, Missouri to serve the Zion-St. Paul United Church of Christ. By Sunday morning, snow had fallen and Rev. Reimer preached to only forty people because of the snow and because the church members anticipated his arrival one week later. So the following Sunday, after one of the warmest February spells ever, the snow was gone, the church was full, and as an added blessing, the Red Bud trees were coming into bloom.

Rev. and Mrs. Tom Reimer and sons

Rev. Reimer, whose name is Thomas F., hails from St. Cloud, Minn. He graduated from Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Illinois and Eden Seminary of St. Louis, Missouri. He is the sixth of seven children born to Julius and Frances Reimer, nee Glasner. As a youth he planned to be a lens grinder and join his older brother Julius' firm. But after two years of lens grinding, a challenge from his pastor began compelling him, and he felt called to enter the ministry.

At Elmhurst College, Tom Reimer met Wendy Huntley who was studying drama and English. Wendy was the oldest of three children born to Ansel and Jean Huntley, nee Wheat, of Chicago, Illinois. She inherited an artistic temperament from her mother and grandmother. Her mother was an artist and her grandmother a writer. Wendy also was a writer. For two years before she entered college she was employed as editor of the "Milky Way News", the house organ of Mars Candy Co., makers of Milky Ways, Snickers and other can-

Death of Mrs. Winkler

Mrs. Lavina Winkler died Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of her son Amos D. Winkler. Deceased was the daughter of Benjamin and Ellen (Holt) Richardson, natives of North Carolina. She was the oldest person in Johnson County at the time of her death, having been born July 16, 1810. The home of her birth was in Madison County, Ky, but after her marriage she lived for some time in Virginia, and was in that state at the time of the Civil War.

In 1826 she was married to James Hendricks who died in 1835. September 11, 1839 she was married to John Winkler who became a resident of Franklin and died in this city in 1882.

The deceased leaves one daughter by her first marriage, Mrs. Ann Durbin, of Charleston, Illinois; and six sons by her second marriage: Amos D. Winkler and Jeff of this city, D. A. Winkler of Needham, J. R. Winkler of Kokomo, Rice Winkler of Kentucky and Benjamin Winkler of Richmond.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Christian church conducted by Rev. R. E. Moss.

148.04A

Fred,
I'm sorry, I worded that incorrectly. I'll try again.

Lavina (Malvina) Richardson Hendrix Winkler:
Vina was born June 16, 1810 in Madison Co., KY.
Vina died October 12, 1907 in Franklin, Johnson Co., IN.
Vina's father was Benjamin Richardson
Vina's mother was Eleanor/Ellen Holt

Vina was married twice.
Vina married Thomas/James Hendrix on October 31, 1826 in Estill County, Kentucky. Thomas and James being the same person. Vina and Thomas had a daughter, Anna Hendrix. Thomas Hendrix died in 1835.

Vina's 2nd marriage was to John Winkler
Vina and John were married September 11, 1838 in Estill Co., KY. They had 7 sons.
Vina is buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery, Franklin, IN.

You have 13 children listed for Coonrod Hendrix
Child 5, Thomas, is the one that married Malvina (Vina) Richardson - You have that correct.
What I'm trying to say is that your child 13 Lavina is the same Vina that married child 5 Thomas.

I will send you her obituary.
Best Regards,
Bob

Fred,
I seen your info on Ancestry.com and you have the wrong Lavina. I just live 45 minutes from Franklin, Johnson Co., Indiana and have been there to do research at least a hundred times. John and Lavina Winkler are my great great great grandparents. I have a copy of Lavina Winkler's obituary and death certificate. Here is her family:

Melvina Richardson
Born June 16, 1810   Madison Co., KY.
Died October 12, 1907   Franklin, IN.
Father Benjamin Richardson
148.04
Mother Ellen Holt
Married ~~October 31, 1826~~ Estill Co., KY.
    Thomas Hendricks
    ~~They had 1 child~~, Anna. Thomas died in 1835
Married September 11, 1838 Estill Co., KY.
    John Winkler
I've seen her name several ways, the most common was Lavina and Vina.

I'm sorry , but I thought you would want to know.

Regards,
Bob Lee
